

Karen Hunter, Director Global Compensation, Benefits & HRIS, A.W. Chesterton Company

Karen Hunter is the Director of Global Compensation, Benefits & HRIS at the A. W. Chesterton Company, an industrial manufacturing firm, where she is responsible for the design, implementation and oversight of the company's global compensation and benefits programs and HR Information Systems. Prior to joining Chesterton, she led the Human Resources function at Keystone Dental, and she has previously held various Human Resources leadership positions at Interactive Data Corporation and the former BankBoston Corporation.

Education/Professional Designations

Karen is a graduate of Northeastern University and has been actively involved in the New England Employee Benefits Council, where she has served as a board member since 2008 and currently serves as its President.