

John F. Kennedy, Consultant

John F. Kennedy is a 20 year Human Resources professional and brings over 20 years of proven experience as a human resources professional specializing in global benefits and retirement plans, medical plan consumerism, HR operations/process improvements and HR Policies, as well as regulatory compliance. Kennedy also possesses a deep understanding of High Deductible Health Plans (HDHP), Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) and incentive based wellness plans. He has worked at various companies to develop and align benefit initiatives to meet business objectives.

Education/Professional Designations

John holds an MBA from Assumption College in Worcester, MA and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Management Science from the State of New York (SUNY) in Geneseo, NY. He is a certified faculty member of the WorldatWork, the world's leading not-for-profit professional association dedicated to knowledge leadership in total rewards, compensation, benefits, and work-life. He is also a Board member of the New England Employee Benefits Council (NEEBC), and frequently speaks on benefit plan cost containment and Health Savings Accounts (HSAs).