

Jim Reardon

Client Executive - Absence, Disability & Life Practice (ADL)

Marsh McLennan Agency (MMA)

As Client Executive for MarshMMA East's Absence, Disability & Life Practice (formerly Trion), Jim is responsible for managing all aspects of client relationship development in the large employer market. With posts in national accounts on the carrier side (Healthnet and UHC), benefit consulting and startups, Jim brings broad experience to his clients on life, disability and leave of absence / PTO strategy, as well as other employee benefit programs. Jim received his undergraduate degree from Williams College and lives in the Portland Maine area on the coast with his wife.