

Responsibilities

Carla Foden is the Growth Leader and Managing Consultant for Gallagher Global Mobility Advisory in Europe, part of the Multinational Benefits & Human Resources Practice. Based in London, Carla's focus is on the development of the Global Mobility Advisory business related to international assignees, including program design, compliance consulting, assignment management, compensation administration, business travel and assignment insurances. Carla has extensive hands on knowledge of the Global Mobility market, with a particular focus on, providing customized solutions to a range of organizations from those taking their first steps internationally to those with established Global Mobility programs.

Professional Experience

Prior to joining Gallagher, Carla gained over 12 years of experience in the Global Mobility industry, through a range of client facing roles in assignment management, mobility transformation, relocation, immigration and short term business travel.

Carla Foden

Managing Consultant,
Global Mobility Advisory

Multinational Benefits & HR Consulting

Education, Community, and Professional Activities

Carla is GMS accredited and holds an ILM leadership and management qualification

Carla was also shortlisted as a "Rising Star" in the industry recognized awards - EMMAs

GALLAGHER

34 Tower View, Kings Hill, West Malling, Kent, ME19 4UY

+44 (0) 75 13 707 053

Carla.Foden@ajg.com

AJG.COM