

Lisa D'Entremont

Lisa is the Head of Total Rewards at Cabot Corporation, based in Boston, Massachusetts. She provides leadership for the design, implementation and communication of executive and non-executive compensation and benefits strategy; scope of $3B in revenue and 4,100 employees globally. Direct interface with BOD Compensation Committee, SVP & Chief HR Officer and CEO on total rewards matters. She has over 25 years of experience and has worked in a variety of industries including, chemical manufacturing, consulting, high technology, and telecommunications.

She has hands-on experience across the spectrum of compensation, benefits & HR operations areas including designing incentive plans, salary structures, rewards and recognition, expatriate management, well-being programs and system automation and implementation.

Lisa holds an MBA from Suffolk University and has her undergraduate degree from Salem State University.