

Tami Ireland, MPH, CHIE
Director of Health Engagement
Harvard Pilgrim Health Care

Tami Ireland, MPH, CHIE is the Director of Health Engagement at Harvard Pilgrim Health Care. Ms. Ireland oversees the design, implementation, and evaluation of Point32health's health engagement strategy, including preventive health, chronic care management, and wellbeing - bringing innovative approaches across the full care spectrum. Ms. Ireland is also responsible for the development of Point32health's award-winning work-site well-being portfolio. She consults with clients to build healthy and inclusive work environments that strengthen employee engagement and support talent management strategies.